INDEX.

Accidents, Railroad, The Ultimate Issue Involved in, 14.
Albertson, Hazel Hammond, News of Industrial Coöperation, 110, 237, 369, 476, 632, 763.
Albertson, Ralph, Initiative and Referendum News, 98, 227, 361, 467, 626, 755.
American Middle Class, The, 436.
America's Monte Carlo, The Nation-Wide Blight of, 79.
Arbitration, The Principles of, 64; Compulsory, Concerning, 532.
"Aryan Peoples, Race Life of the," 579.
Assistant to Providence, An, 702.
Barton, Clara, How and Why She Became Interested in Christian Science, 572.
Baxter, Rex Mitchell, The Legislative Reference Library, 674.
Beaumont, Saul, Zionism or Socialism: Which Will Solve the Jewish Problem?, 54.
Beckhard, Bruno, Public Ownership News, 103, 234, 365, 470, 629; Municipal Ownership News, 760.
Bixby, James T., Emerson as Writer and Man, 588; Emerson's Message, 665.
Books of the Day, 117, 249, 381, 490, 590.
Books of the Hour, Men, Women and, 725.
Book-Studies, 113, 240, 374, 479, 486, 579, 586, 716.
Brewer, Justice, on the Initiative and Referendum as a Safeguard Against Despotism and Mob-Rule, 83.
Brooks, John Graham, on the Renaissance of Democracy and Civic Righteousness in the Far West, 205.
Browning, Robert: The Eagle-Hearted Poet of the Nineteenth Century, 72.
Bryan, Mr., and the Corporation-Owned Press, 92; and the Would-Be Wreckers of the Democratic Party, 334; The World's Campaign Against, 348; and the Senegambian in the New York World's Woodpile, 464; Man and Statesman, 605.
Butler, Maynard, The Relation of Woman in Industry and the Growth of Crime, 526.
Campbell, Rev. R. J., and the New Theology, 113; on Christ's Attitude in Regard to Social Righteousness, 459.
Canada, The Peopling of, 186.
Candidates, Other, 606.
Centralization, Extreme, The Popular Reaction Against, 217.
Charwoman, My, What She Said to Me, 68.
Child Slaves of America, Mr. Holmes' Plea for the, 458.
Christ, The Sick and Modern Christianity, 557.
Christ's Attitude in Regard to Social Righteousness, Rev. R. J. Campbell on, 459.
"Christianity and the Social Order," 374.
Christianity, The Philosophy of, 691.
Christian Science Concept of Deity, The, 299.
Christian Science, The Message of, 439; How and Why Clara Barton Became Interested in, 572.
Christian Socialist Fellowship, The Third National Conference of the, 751.
Church, The, and Social Problems of the Hour, 82; Privileged Wealth and Social Justice, 455.
Civic Corruption and the Overthrow of Representative Government, One of the Foremost Sociological Authorities on the Root Causes of, 205.
Civic Righteousness, The Clergy and the Battle for, 455.
Clark, Walter, Judicial Supremacy, 148.
Clarke, George Herbert, The Symbolism of "The Tempest," 185.
Clergy, The, and the Battle for Civic Righteousness, 455.
Clergyman's Brave Stand for Pure Government, A Leading Metropolitan, 456.
Cleveland, Mayor Johnson's Splendid Victory for the Citizens of, 744.
Closed Shop to the Open World, Through the, 544.
Cockerell, Wilmatte Porter, A Man's Work, 49; An Assistant to Providence, 702.
Comments, Notes and, 128, 255, 383, 511, 639, 767.
Commercial Leper, The, and the Contagion He Has Spread Throughout Business and Political Life, 336.
Commercial Panics, How to Make Them Impossible, 409.
Constitution, The Federal, and the Maintenance of Popular Government, 80.
Constitutional Convention, Michigan, 228.
Coöperation, Industrial, News of, 110, 237, 369, 476, 632, 763.
Coöperation in Great Britain, 275.
Coöperative Movement in Mexico, 755.
Corporal Punishment, A Protest Against, 96.
Corporate Wealth, Typical Examples of the Corruption of Government and Enslavement of the People by, 207; and Monopoly Power, The Secret of the Political Supremacy of, 345.
Corporation-Owned Press, Mr. Bryan and the, 92.
Corruption in High Places, F. J. Heney on, 624.
Corruption of Government and Plunder of the People, Master Sources of, 205; and Enslavement of Industry by Corporate Wealth, Typical Examples of, 207.
Cortelyou, Crafty Mr., How He was Caught in the Act, 89.
Crime, The Relation of Woman in Industry to the Growth of, 526.
Criminal Rich, Governor Folk on Public Servants and the Law-Defying, 746.
Criminals, Is the United States Government Making?, 319.
Crozier, Alfred O., The Recent Panic and the Present Deadly Peril to American Prosperity, 272.
Day, Chancellor, His Latest Attack on President Roosevelt, 353; Another Illustration of His Pernicious Activity in Behalf of the Criminal Standard Oil Company, 750.
Deity, The Christian Science Concept of, 299.
Democracy, and Graft, Mr. Langdon on the Present Struggle Between, 92; and Civic Righteousness in the Far West, John Graham Brooks on the Renaissance of, 205; Richard Wagner on the Demand of, in the Struggle of the People Against Reactionary, Class and Privileged Interests, 619.
Democratic Government, The Battle of Privilege Against, 479.
Democratic Party, Mr. Bryan and the Would-Be

Wreckers of the, 344; the Would-Be Wreckers of the, 347; The War Between Democracy and Plutocracy in the, 742; The Would-Be Wreckers of the, and Their Present Tactics, 742.
Democratic Voters, Two Facts for Them to Remember, 742.
Dick Turpins, The Modern, Renewed Activity of, 462.
Direct-Legislation, Renders Possible a Truly Representative Government, 210; and Popular Government, 608; Professor Frank Parsons on the Success of in Switzerland, 618; Campaign in the Empire State, The, 650; Constitutional Amendment for New York, The Proposed, 661; News, 755.
Drink, Sixty Years' Futile Battle of Legislation With, 315.
Ebb of Ecclesiasticism, The, 176.
Ecclesiasticism, The Ebb of, 176.
Editor's Quiet Hour, The, 72, 198, 323, 441, 575, 709.
Education for All, A Fair, 425.
Egyptian Taskmasters, Why the People Have So Long Borne With the, 207.
Election, The Coming, The Political Outlook for, 552.
Elwell, F. Edwin, The Life and Art of, 259; The Message of Christian Science, 439.
Emerson as Writer and Man, 538.
Emerson's Message, 665.
England, George Allan, The Ebb of Ecclesiasticism, 176; The Socialist Philosophy of Panics, 684.
Englishman's Criticism of Our Republic, An, 344.
Europe, Railroad Regulation in, 612.
Express Company, Twenty-Four Millions to Stockholders of a Single, 463.
Express Rates, The Recent Raise in by the American and National Express Companies, 462.
Farmers, Progressive, 97.
Farnsworth, Edward C., Leibnitz, Hegel and Modern Theosophy, 417.
Federal Constitution, The, and the Maintenance of Popular Government, 80.
Fehlandt, August F., Science and the Supernatural, 282.
Finland's Radical Prohibition Legislation, 94.
Fiske, Minnie Maddern, The Personality and Art of, 33.
Flower, B. O., The Soul of Man in Twentieth-Century Sculpture: A Study of Mr. Partridge's Portrait Busts, 3; The Editor's Quiet Hour, 72, 198, 323, 441, 575, 709; Robert Browning: The Eagle-Hearted Poet of the Nineteenth Century, 72; Editorials by, 78, 205, 335, 449, 604, 737; The Blight of Wall-Street High Finance, 78; The Proposed Tax on Wall-Street Gambling, 78; Great Gamblers Who Play With Stacked Cards, 78; The Nation-Wide Blight of America's Monte Carlo, 79; Wall-Street Gambling Worse Than That of the Louisiana Lottery, 79; How Wall Street Imperils the Legitimate Business of the Nation, 79; The New York World on Taxing the Gamblers, 79; The Federal Constitution and the Maintenance of Popular Government, 80; The Church and Social Problems of the Hour, 82; Justice Brewer on the Initiative and Referendum as a Safeguard Against Despotism and Mob-Rule, 83; The Plunder of the Postal Department by Our Railways, Our Greatest National Scandal, 84; The Pitiable Plight of the Treasury Department, with No Statesman at Its Head in the Hour of National Peril, 86; How Crafty Mr. Cortelyou was Caught in the Act, 89; Mr. Watson's Exposure of the Confiscatory Plea of the Railways, 90; Mr. Bryan and the Corporation-Owned Press, 92; Mr. Langdon on the Present Struggle Between Democracy and Graft, 92; Finland's Radical Prohibition Legislation, 94; The Case of Bernarr Macfadden, 94; A Protest Against Corporal Punishment, 96; Progressive Farmers, 97; Book-Studies, 113, 240, 374, 479, 486, 579, 586, 716; Rev. R. J. Campbell and the New Theology, 113; Books of the Day, 117, 249, 381, 490, 590; Notes and Comments, 128, 255, 383, 511, 639, 767; Silent Springs of Power: Or, The Still, Small Voice, 198; John Graham Brooks on the Renaissance of Democracy and Civic Righteousness in the Far West, 205; One of the Foremost Sociological Authorities on Root-Causes of Civic Corruption and the Overthrow of Representative Government, 205; Master-Sources of Corruption of Government and Plunder of the People, 205; Typical Examples of the Corruption of Government and Enslavement of Industry by Corporate Wealth, 207; Why the People Have so Long Borne with the Egyptian Taskmasters, 207; How the People Fare Under Private Ownership of Public Utilities, 209; The Substitution of Government by Corporations for Popular Rule, 209; Direct-Legislation Renders Possible a Truly Representative Government, 210; San Francisco Leads the Way, 211; How the "Interests" Tried to Defeat Mr. Langdon, and Labor Elected Him, 212; The Great Importance to the Nation at Large of San Francisco's Battle, 212; The Passing of Gerald Massey, the Veteran Bard of Freedom, 214; The Popular Reaction Against Extreme Centralization, 217; The Menace to Republican Government from Autocratic Arrogation of Power and Ultra-Centralization, 217; A Democratic Method of Restoring the Government to the People, 217; The Unrepublican, Reactionary and Autocratic Method of Dealing with Admitted Abuses, 217; The Hamiltonian Reactionary Centralizing Movement Would Make the Plutocracy Invincible, 218; The Awakening of the People Promises a Democratic Republican Renaissance, 219; A Great American Daily on the Renaissance of Popular Sovereignty, 219; Republican Presidential Possibilities and What They Represent, 221; The Treasury Department, Wall-Street Banking Interests and the People, 224; Selecting a Representative of a Privileged Class to Guard the People's Interests from the Aggressions of That Class, 224; The Selection of the Most Popular Wall-Street Campaign Collector to Head the Treasury Department, 225; Professor Parsons Exposes the Latest National Treasury Scandal, 225; The Hebrew Mayor of Rome, 226; The Life and Writings of Benjamin Franklin, 240; The Life and Art of F. Edwin Elwell, 259; The Poet as a Philosopher, 323; Popular Rule or Standard Oil Supremacy: Which Shall It Be? 335; A Choice Involving the Soul-Life of the Republic, 335; The Commercial Leper and the Contagion He Has Spread Throughout Business and Political Life, 336;

The Supreme Menace of the Standard Oil Interests, 337; Amazing Revelations Showing Ramifications of the Standard Oil Interests, 338; Two Sovereigns Cannot Exist Under One Flag, 339; An Important Table Showing Some of the Ramifications of the Standard Oil System, 339; The President's Brave Stand on the Standard Oil Corruption, 342; A Further Word Concerning the President, 343; Mr. Bryan and the Would-Be Wreckers of the Democratic Party, 344; An Englishman's Criticism of Our Republic, 344; How the Nation Fell into the Hands of the Spoilers, 345; The Right and Left Arm of the Oligarchy of Privileged Wealth, 345; The Secret of the Political Supremacy of Corporate Wealth and Monopoly Power, 345; The Plutocracy in Politics for Control of the Government, 346; The Would-Be Wreckers of the Democratic Party, 347; The Significant Result of the Parker Campaign with the New York World as the Journalistic Moses, 347; Again the Wreckers are at Work, 348; The World's Campaign Against Mr. Bryan, 348; Governor Johnson Championed by Harper's Weekly and Other Reactionary Journals, 349; President Roosevelt's Message of January Thirty-First, 350; Chancellor Day's Latest Attack on President Roosevelt, 353; Is President Roosevelt a Reactionist? 354; The Republican Candidates and the Feudalism of Privileged Wealth, 355; A Judicial Blow at the Tyrannical Medical Monopoly, 356; "Christianity and the Social Order," 374; The Theater and Social Progress, 441; An Appeal to Friends of Popular Government, 449; The Foe Within the Gates, 449; How Popular Government is Being Overthrown, 449; The Two Great Perils That Confront Us, 451; The Only Peaceful Method for Restoration of Popular Government, 451; The Campaign Against Popular Rule in Oregon, 452; The Situation in Oregon, 453; The Portland Journal on the Coming Struggle, 453; To American Patriots, 455; The Church, Privileged Wealth and Social Justice, 455; The Clergy and the Battle for Civic Righteousness, 455; A Leading Metropolitan Clergyman's Brave Stand for Pure Government, 456; Mr. Holmes' Plea for the Child Slaves of America, 458; The Bishop of London on Dives and Lazarus, 458; The Rev. R. J. Campbell on Christ's Attitude in Regard to Social Righteousness, 459; Was Abraham Lincoln a Party Man? 461; Secretary Taft's Misrepresentation of the Martyred President, 461; Lincoln's Arraignment of Party Subserviency, 462; Renewed Activity of the Modern Dick Turpins, 462; The Recent Raise in Express Rates by the American and National Express Companies, 462; Twenty-Four Millions to Stockholders of a Single Express Company, 463; Mr. Bryan and the Senegambian in the New York World's Woodpile, 464; New Zealand Still Forging Ahead, 466; The Battle of Privilege Against Democratic Government, 479; "The Inward Light," 486; Christ, the Sick and Modern Christianity, 557; The Poet as a Prophet of Freedom and Social Righteousness, 575; "Race Life of the Aryan Peoples," 579; "New Worlds for Old," 586; Presidential Possibilities, 604; The Outlook for Nominations, 604; Mr. Bryan: Man and Statesman, 605; Mr. Taft: His Strength and Weakness, 605; Other Candidates, 606; Other Parties, 608; Direct-Legislation and Popular Government, 608; Railroad Regulation in Europe, 612; The Degradation of the House of Representatives, 615; How the Privileged Interests Captured and Now Control the National House, 615; Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson's Grave Charge, 616; The Revolt in the House, 617; Professor Frank Parsons on the Success of Direct-Legislation in Switzerland, 618; Richard Wagner on the Demand of Democracy in the Struggle of the People Against Reactionary, Class and Privileged Interests, 619; The New York World's Gallant Fight for Plutocracy, 620; The President's Message of March Twenty-Fifth, 622; Plutocracy's Latest Blow at a Free Press, 623; F. J. Heney on Corruption in High Places, 624; The Direct-Legislation Campaign in the Empire State, 650; Religious Idealism and Twentieth-Century Life, 709; "The Liberators," 716; Men, Women and Books of the Hour, 723; The Sinister Assault on the Breastworks of Free Government, 737; The War Between Democracy and Plutocracy in the Democratic Party, 742; Two Facts for Democratic Voters to Remember, 742; The Would-Be Wreckers of the Democratic Party and Their Present Tactics, 742; Mayor Johnson's Splendid Victory for the Citizens of Cleveland, 744; Governor Folk on Public Servants and the Law-Defying Criminal Rich, 746; Is Mr. Roosevelt the Hypocrite His Friends Would Have Us Believe Him to Be? 748; Another Illustration of Chancellor Day's Pernicious Activity in Behalf of the Criminal Standard Oil Company, 750; The Third National Conference of the Christian Socialist Fellowship, 751; Wherein President Roosevelt Has Failed the People, 751; Mexico's Practical Measures for Fostering and Protecting the Interests of the People, 753; A Republic That Guards Her Citizens from the Rapacity of the Few, 753; The Mexican Parcels Post, 753; The Mexican Government in Control of Her Great Trunk Railroads, 754; Coöperative Movement in Mexico, 755.

Folk, Governor, on Public Servants and the Law-Defying Criminal Rich, 746.

Franklin, Benjamin, The Life and Writings of, 240.

Free Government, The Sinister Assault on the Breastworks of, 737.

Free Press, A, Plutocracy's Latest Blow at, 623.

Free Speech, The Lawless Suppression of, in New York, 694; The Denial of, in Massachusetts: A Personal Statement, 699.

French, W. P., The United States Trust, 307.

Galveston, The Resurrection of, 387.

Gamblers, Great, Who Play with Stacked Cards, 78.

Gambling, Wall-Street, The Proposed Tax on, 78.

Garvin, L. F. C., A Possible Way Out, 193.

Gile, F. H., Prometheus Bound and Unbound: A Study in Advancing Civilization, 430.

Gray, J. C., Coöperation in Great Britain, 275.

Great Britain, Coöperation in, 275.

Griffin, Albert, How to Make Commercial Panics Impossible, 409.

Hall, Bolton, What My Charwoman Said to Me, 68.

Hayes, Arthur B., Inheritance Taxes, 26.

Hebrew Mayor of Rome, The, 226.

Hegel and Modern Theosophy, Leibnitz, 417.

Henderson, Archibald, The Story of Rimini, 20; The Rimini Story in Modern Drama, 142.
Henley, F. J., on Corruption in High Places, 624.
Hidden, William B., Professional Civilization, 65.
High Finance, The Blight of Wall-Street, 78.
Hildreth, T. F., The Quest, 547.
Hobson, Captain Richmond Pearson, His Grave Charge, 616.
Holmes, Mr., His Plea for the Child Slaves of America, 458.
House, The National, How the Privileged Interests Captured and Now Control, 615; of Representatives, The Degradation of the, 615; The Revolt in the, 617.
Ibsen, Henrik, His "The Master Builder," 160.
India's Coming Greatness from a Constructive View-point, 399.
Inheritance Taxes, 26.
Initiative and Referendum as a Safeguard Against Despotism and Mob-Rule, Justice Brewer on the, 83.
Initiative and Referendum News, 98, 227, 361, 467, 626.
In the Mirror of the Present, 78, 205, 335, 449, 604, 737.
"Inward Light, The," 486.
James, George Wharton, The Resurrection of Galveston, 387; Picturesque San Antonio, 515.
Jefferson, Eugenia Paul, How and Why Clara Barton Became Interested in Christian Science, 572.
Jewish Problem, Zionism or Socialism: Which Will Solve the? 54.
Johnson, Governor John, Championed by Harper's Weekly and Other Reactionary Journals, 349.
Judicial Supremacy, 148.
LaMonte, Robert Rives, The American Middle Class, 436.
Langdon, Mr., on the Present Struggle Between Democracy and Graft, 92; How the "Interests" Tried to Defeat Him, and Labor Elected Him, 212.
Lawless Suppression of Free Speech in New York, The, 694.
Legislative Reference Library, The, 674.
Leibnitz, Hegel and Modern Theosophy, 417.
Leubuscher, Frederic Cyrus, The Proposed Direct-Legislation Constitutional Amendment for New York, 661.
"Liberators, The," 716.
Lincoln, Abraham, Was He a Party Man? 461; His Arraignment of Party Subserviency, 462; His Message to Young Men, 569.
Literary Section, Our: Men, Women and Books of the Hour, 723.
London, The Bishop of, on Dives and Lazarus, 458.
Macfadden, Bernarr, The Case of, 94.
Mackenzie, William D., The Direct-Vote System, 131.
Mailly, William, Henrik Ibsen's "The Master Builder," 160.
Mansfield, Was He a Genius? 166.
Man's Work, A, 69.
Manufacturing-Works High School for Young Women, 303.
Marriage Relation, The, The Failure of Organized Religion in the Treatment of, 681.
Massey, Gerald, The Veteran Bard of Freedom, The Passing of, 214.
"Master Builder, The," Henrik Ibsen's, 160.
Medical Monopoly, A Judicial Blow at the Tyrannical, 356.
Mexican Government in Control of Her Great Trunk Railroads, 754.
Mexico, Coöperative Movement in, 755.
Mexico's Parcels Post, 753.
Mexico's Practical Measures for Fostering and Protecting the Interests of the People, 753.
Middle Class, The American, 436.
Miller, Elizabeth, 723.
Mirror of the Present, In the, 78, 205, 335, 449, 604, 737.
Monte Carlo, America's, The Nation-Wide Blight of, 79.
Moore, George H., The Christian Science Concept of Deity, 299.
Municipal-Ownership News, 760.
Nation, The, How It Fell into the Hands of the Spoilers, 345.
New Theology, Rev. R. J. Campbell and the, 113.
"New Worlds for Old," 586.
New Zealand Still Forging Ahead, 466.
Nominations, The Outlook for, 604.
Notes and Comments, 128, 255, 383, 511, 639, 767.
Oregon, The Campaign Against Popular Rule in, 452; The Situation in, 453.
Owen, Robert L., The Restoration of Popular Rule: The Greatest of All Non-Partisan Issues, 643.
Panic, The Recent, and the Present Deadly Peril to American Prosperity, 272.
Panics, Commercial, How to Make Them Impossible, 409; The Socialist Philosophy of, 684.
Parcels Post, Mexico's, 753.
Parker Campaign, The Significant Result of the, With the New York World as the Journalistic Moses, 347.
Parsons, Frank, Exposes the Latest National Treasury Scandal, 225; A Fair Education for All, 425; Lincoln's Message to Young Men, 569; On the Success of Direct-Legislation in Switzerland, 618.
Parties, Other, 608.
Party Subserviency, Lincoln's Arraignment of, 462.
Patriots, To American, 455.
People, The, Why They Have so Long Borne with the Egyptian Taskmasters, 207; How They Fare Under Private-Ownership of Public Utilities, 209; The Treasury Department, Wall-Street Banking Interests and, 224.
Peopling of Canada, The, 186.
Philosopher, The Poet as a, 323.
Philosophy of Christianity, The, 691.
Plutocracy in Politics for the Control of Government, The, 346.
Plutocracy, The New York World's Gallant Fight for, 620.
Plutocracy's Latest Blow at a Free Press, 623.
Poet, The, as a Philosopher, 325; As a Prophet of Freedom and Social Righteousness, 575.
Political Outlook for the Coming Election, The, 552.
Popular Government, The Federal Constitution and the Maintenance of, 80; An Appeal to Friends of, 449; How It is Being Overthrown, 449; The Only Peaceful Method for the Restoration of, 451.
Popular Rule, The Substitution of Government by Corporations for, 209; Or Standard Oil Supremacy: Which Shall It Be? 335; in Oregon, The Campaign Against, 452; The Restoration of: The Greatest of All Non-Partisan Issues, 643.

Portland Journal, The, on the Coming Struggle, 453.
Possible Way Out, A, 193.
Postal Department, The Plunder of, by the Railways, Our Greatest National Scandal, 84.
Power, Silent Springs of; Or, The Still, Small Voice, 198.
Present, In the Mirror of the, 78, 205, 335, 449, 604, 737.
President, The, A Further Word Concerning, 343; His Message of March Twenty-Fifth, 622.
Presidential Possibilities, Republican, and What They Represent, 221; 604.
Press, A Free, Plutocracy's Latest Blow at, 623.
Private Ownership of Public Utilities, How the People Fare Under, 209.
Privilege, The Battle of, Against Democratic Government, 479.
Privileged Interests, How They Captured and Now Control the National House, 615.
Privileged Wealth, The Right and Left Wing of the Oligarchy of, 345; The Republican Candidates and the Feudalism of, 355; and Social Justice, The Church, 455.
Professional Civilization, 65.
Prohibition Legislation, Finland's Radical, 94.
Prometheus Bound and Unbound: A Study in Advancing Civilization, 430.
Proportional Representation News, 107, 231, 357, 474.
Prosperity, American, The Recent Panic and the Present Deadly Peril to, 272.
Public Ownership News, 103, 234, 365, 470, 629.
Public Utilities, How the People Fare Under Private Ownership of, 209.
Quiet Hour, The Editor's, 72, 198, 323, 441, 575, 709.
Quest, The, 547.
"Race Life of the Aryan Peoples, The," 579.
Race-Track Evil and the Newspapers, The, 427.
Railroad Accidents, The Ultimate Issue Involved in, 14.
Railroad Regulation in Europe, 612.
Railways, The, The Plunder of the Postal Department by, Our Greatest National Scandal, 84; Mr. Watson's Exposure of the Confiscatory Plea of, 90.
Ransom, Abbie Fosdick, Is the United States Government Making Criminals? 319.
Rappaport, Philip, The Probable Self-Destruction of the Trust, 45; Sixty Years' Futile Battle of Legislation with Drink, 315.
Rees, George Llewellyn, Roosevelt as a Reactionist, 289.
Religion, Organized, The Failure of in the Treatment of the Marriage Relation, 681.
Religious and Secular Distinguished, The, 48.
Religious Idealism and Twentieth-Century Life, 709.
Representative Government, Direct-Legislation Renders Possible a Truly, 210.
Representatives, The House of, The Degradation of, 615.
Republic, The, A Choice Involving the Soul Life of, 335; A, That Guards Her Citizens from the Rapacity of the Few, 753.
Republican Candidates, The, and the Feudalism of Privileged Wealth, 355.
Republican Presidential Possibilities and What They Represent, 221.
Rich, The, Pernicious Laudation of, 534.
Rimini, The Story of, 20.
Rimini Story in Modern Drama, The, 142.
Rome, The Hebrew Mayor of, 226.
Roosevelt, President, A Glance at His Administration and His Personality, 156; As a Reactionist, 289; His Message of January Thirty-First, 350; Chancellor Day's Latest Attack on, 353; Is He a Reactionist? 354; Is He the Hypocrite His Friends Would Have Us Believe Him to Be? 748; Wherein He Has Failed the People, 751.
San Antonio, Picturesque, 515.
San Francisco Leads the Way, 211.
San Francisco's Battle, Great Importance to the Nation at Large of, 212.
Sawyer, Roland D., The Failure of Organized Religion in the Treatment of the Marriage Relation, 681.
Sing, Saint Nihal, India's Coming Greatness from a Constructive View-Point, 399.
Schroeder, Theodore, The Religious and Secular Distinguished, 48; Concerning Compulsory Arbitration, 532; The Lawless Suppression of Free Speech in New York, 694.
Science and the Supernatural, 282.
Sculpture, Twentieth-Century, The Soul of Man in: A Study of Mr. Partridge's Portrait Busts, 3.
Secular, The Religious and, Distinguished, 48.
Silent Springs of Power; Or, The Still, Small Voice, 198.
Socialism, Zionism or: Which Will Solve the Jewish Problem? 54; A Socialist's Definition of, 564.
"Social Order, Christianity and the," 374.
Social Problems of the Hour, The Church and, 82.
Social Progress, The Theater and, 441.
Socialist Philosophy of Panics, The, 684.
Southern Pacific Turned Down, The, 98.
Standard Oil Company, The Criminal, Another Illustration of Chancellor Day's Pernicious Activity in Behalf of, 750.
Standard Oil Corruption, The President's Brave Stand on the, 342.
Standard Oil Interests, The Supreme Menace of the, 337; Amazing Revelations Showing Ramifications of the, 338; An Important Table Showing Some of the Ramifications of the, 339.
Standard Oil Supremacy, Popular Rule or: Which Shall It Be? 335.
Stevens, Hon. I. N., author of "The Liberators," 723.
Supernatural, Science and the, 282.
Symbolism of "The Tempest," The, 185.
Taft, Secretary, His Misrepresentation of the Martyred President, 461; His Strength and Weakness, 605.
"Tempest, The," The Symbolism of, 605.
Theater and Social Progress, The, 441.
Thompson, Carl D., A Socialist's Definition of Socialism, 564.
Thum, William, Manufacturing-Works High Schools for Young Women, 303.
Traubel, Horace, Through the Closed Shop to the Open World, 544.
Treasury Department, The Pitiable Plight of the, with No Statesman at Its Head in the Hour of National Peril, 86; Wall-Street Banking Interests and the People, 224.

Treasury Scandal, Professor Parsons' Exposure of the Latest, 225.
Trust, The Probable Self-Destruction of the, 45; The United States, 307.
Tyson, Robert, Various Voting Systems, 59; Proportional Representation News, 107, 231, 357, 474.
United States Government, Is It Making Criminals? 319.
United States Trust, The, 307.
Voting Systems, Various, 59.
Vrooman, Carl, The Ultimate Issue Involved in Railroad Accidents, 14.
Vrooman, Frank, The Peopling of Canada, 186.
Wagner, Richard, on the Demand of Democracy in the Struggle of the People Against Reactionary, Class and Privileged Interests, 619.
Wall Street, How It Imperils the Legitimate Business of the Nation, 79.
Wall-Street Banking Interests and the People, The Treasury Department, 224.
Wall-Street Gambling, The Proposed Tax on, 78; Worse Than That of the Louisiana Lottery, 79.
Wall-Street High Finance, The Blight of, 78.
Wandmacher, Harry, Was Mansfield a Genius? 166.
Watson, Mr., His Exposure of the Confiscatory Plea of the Railways, 90.
Webster, J. A., The Philosophy of Christianity, 691.
West, Kenyon, The Personality and the Art of Minnie Maddern Fiske, 33.
What My Charwoman Said to Me, 68.
White, Eliot, Denial of Free Speech in Massachusetts: A Personal Statement, 699.
Williams, George Fred., The Political Outlook for the Coming Election, 552.
Willis, F. Milton, The Principles of Arbitration, 64.
Woman in Industry and the Growth of Crime, The Relation of, 526.
Works, John D., A Glance at President Roosevelt's Administration and His Personality, 156; The Race-Track Evil and the Newspapers, 427; Pernicious Laudation of the Rich, 554.
World, The New York, on Taxing the Gamblers, 79; Mr. Bryan and the Senegambian in Its Woodpile, 464; Its Gallant Fight for Plutocracy, 620.
Zionism or Socialism: Which Will Solve the Jewish Problem? 54.